About the National Youth Science Forum
The National Youth Science Forum (NYSF) is a national not-for-profit charity that has operated for over 38 years. One of Australia’s most well-known STEM outreach organisations, the NYSF inspires students to pursue a range of science, technology, engineering and maths (STEM) study and career options. More information regarding the activities of the NYSF is available at www.nysf.edu.au and across our social media channels.
We currently have a team of 14 staff members and engage casual staff where required. The NYSF comprises of four teams: Programs, Partnerships and Alumni, Communications, and Corporate Services. The NYSF team is led by CEO Dr Melanie Bagg and supported by a highly regarded Board.

About the Communications Officer Role

Working in a small team, the Communications Officer will report to the Manager, Communications (currently based in Melbourne). With support and direction, they will manage various communications, marketing, and administrative tasks.

Duties will include:

- Developing, scheduling, and publishing content for NYSF’s range of communication channels, with particular attention to social media, electronic direct emails, and the website.
- Writing, editing, and proof-reading social media content, blog articles, media releases, newsletters, marketing collateral, the annual report, speaking notes, and multi-media content.
- Design and production and potential management of stock of marketing collateral and merchandise, such as brochures, posters, and banners.
- Monitor use of NYSF brand and corporate identity across communications deliverables.
- Contribute to communications planning and ensure processes are well documented.
- Contribute to planning and delivery of outward-facing NYSF events.
- Liaise with other teams within the NYSF to enable their communication goals and ensure our brand identity and standards are consistently delivered.
- Other duties as directed.

About you

We are looking for someone with solid skills and experience in communications, who is committed to the general vision and mission of the NYSF, works well in a small team and close cooperative environment, but is also able to be self-directed and work independently to make decisions and drive projects to completion when needed.

Selection Criteria:

Essential

- Experience or qualifications working in communications or related/transferrable fields (new graduates will be considered with minimal experience).
- Demonstrated organisational skills, including the ability to be flexible and manage competing priorities while working under pressure and in tight timeframes.
- Strong interpersonal and communication (written and oral) skills.
- Experience with social media for business purposes, particularly Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and LinkedIn.
- Experience in editing content in Wordpress or a similar platform, or the ability to learn.
- Basic design skills and a willingness to learn on NYSF design platforms (Canva and InDesign).
• Intermediate to Advanced Microsoft Office skills (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
• Experience with Salesforce CRM or a similar database system.
• Willingness to work outside of standard hours of operation as required and travel interstate as needed for NYSF events – the successful candidate must be able to work full-time during December (outside the standard shutdown period) and January to assist with the delivery of the NYSF Year 12 Program.
• A current Working with Vulnerable Persons registration, or the ability to obtain registration before commencing in the position.
• A current First Aid certificate, or the ability to obtain registration before commencing in the position.
• COVID-19 vaccination, or willingness to obtain, in order to attend NYSF events.

Desirable

• Experience working in a not-for-profit environment
• Experience organising events (for example stalls, networking events, workshops, conferences, etc.)
• Photography experience
• Branding experience
• Experience with messenger applications and app communication for programs and conferences

This position is full time fixed term contract position for 12 months, with the likelihood of extension.

How to apply

NYSF is an equal opportunity employer and encourages people of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander background or people with a disability to apply.
